Response to Office Action

Dear Examiner Fernstrom:

Thank you for your Office Action, mailing date of October 19, 2004, and for your clear-cut critique of outstanding issues with respect to indefinite language. I have taken your criticism to hand and have substantially revised my set of claims accordingly, creating a new set of claims.

Please enter my Amendment to the Claims, enclosed herein, in which I cancel the claims 4 through 15, and in which I enter my new set of claims 16 through 27. As a supplement to my Amendment to the Claims, I also enclose Remarks concerning my use of the term "about" in one claim, and in my Remarks, I point out supportive locations in my Specification and Drawings.

Please also enter my Amendment to the Specification, because I unintentionally omitted citing four of my filed drawings, Figures 2E - 2H, in the Brief Description of the Drawings.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

David Andrew D'Zmura (pro se independent inventor)
